

FORCE OPPOSITION BACK TO DEFENSIVE

GENERAL DEBATE ON GOVERNMENT SHIP PURCHASE BILL IS RESUMED

Leaders of Opposition Renew Declaration of Unrelenting War on Measure—Democratic Champions Assert Bill Will Not Be Withdrawn.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Administration forces of the senate succeeded late today in forcing the Republicans and insurgent Democrats back to the defensive in the fight over the government ship purchase bill. Accepting the inevitable, leaders of the opposition at once renewed their declaration of unrelenting war on the bill, to be continued if necessary until adjournment on March 4th, and general debate was resumed in another protracted session which shows no signs of abatement at a late hour tonight. Democratic champions of the bill asserted emphatically that the bill would not be withdrawn and that the great appropriation bills would be left untouched should the opposition insist on preventing a vote on the pending measure. The president intimated to white house callers during the day that there was no thought of yielding to enemies of the proposed legislation. Such a situation, it generally was conceded, was almost certain to lead to an extra session of congress. The only way to obviate this it was suggested probably would be for the senate to adopt some form of cloture to force a vote on the ship bill, but even the administration leaders deemed this to be very unlikely. Republicans and the Democratic insurgents had to renew the debate when Senator Fletcher offered a motion to recommit the bill with instructions to the committee to report it with amendments forthwith. When he sought to get a vote on his motion an effort was made by the opposition to recess until tomorrow. This motion was lost by a vote of 48 to 47, with Senator Kenyon the only absentee.

Senators Norris and LaFollette voted against the recess while Senators Clarke, Camden, Bankhead, Hardwick, Hitchcock, O'Gorman and Vardaman, the seven Democratic standbys, voted with the Republican minority. Until to recess or adjourn the opposition again took up the task of talking the bill to death. Senator Lodge opened the discussion declaring that no vote on the Fletcher motion would be permitted if it could be avoided.

When the night session was assured, Senator Jones of Washington, who had been preparing for such an emergency for more than a week took the floor and launched into a speech designed to extend throughout the night. Senator Jones declared he would talk until March 4th, if it was physically possible and necessary in order to accomplish the defeat of the bill.

SUGGESTS FEDERAL PROBE OF WHEAT DEALINGS IN NEW YORK

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Further developments of the government's effort to determine causes for the rise in wheat prices were discussed by department of justice officials today in connection with a suggestion by District Attorney Cline of Chicago that an inquiry into future dealings in New York be undertaken to supplement such an investigation in Chicago. It was said that Mr. Cline pointed out it was practically impossible to discover whether the wheat rise was due to real demand or to speculation unless the government obtained specific figures. Difficulty in compiling such statistics is recognized here. Figures showing actual exports through New York come as routine to the commerce department but much of that wheat might have been bought originally for speculation, then sold when prices reached attractive heights.

PRESIDENT TO MAKE SEVERAL NOMINATIONS

Washington, Feb. 8.—President Wilson is expected to make several nominations for positions in the near future. Places to be filled include, the five positions on the federal trade commission, a district judgeship in Iowa, for which Martin E. Wade, has practically been selected; a judgeship in southern California, several federal offices in New York and some important vacancies in the treasury department.

NEW OUTBREAK IS NOT AS GRAVE AS ORIGINAL CATTLE INFECTION

Disease Re-appears in Stockyards in Nine Cities—Yards to Remain Closed Until Thoroughly Disinfected.

Washington, Feb. 8.—While re-appearance of the foot and mouth disease in stock yards of nine cities admittedly is a serious setback in the campaign against the plague, department of agriculture officials said today the new outbreak did not present as grave a situation as the original infection because it did not affect stock held on farms. All the cattle infected in the yards in Chicago, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, Louisville, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Columbus, Jersey City and Baltimore were for immediate slaughter. The yards will remain closed until they have been thoroughly disinfected. Elimination of the infection, a department statement said, "is principally a matter of disinfecting all cars used in these shipments and all yards through which they have passed."

The statement added: "In the opinion of the federal authorities the renewal of the plague emphasizes the necessity of adhering for some time longer to the quarantine regulations that prohibit the shipment of any stock from the quarantined area for any purpose except immediate slaughter and also prohibit its shipment at all to points in free area."

The government also holds that cattle purchased for slaughter and found to be affected with foot and mouth disease shall not be paid for, but may be condemned under the federal meat inspection law like any other diseased stock. Purchasers of cattle for slaughter in territory where there is reason to suspect the existence of the disease purchase at their own risk and there is no reason why the government should insure them against the possibility of loss."

Establishes Five Mile Quarantine.
Dubuque, Iowa, Feb. 8.—As a result of the discovery of foot and mouth disease in a herd of cattle on the farm of Otto Boesel, near Epworth, Dubuque county, a five mile quarantine was established by state officials today.

Market Is Demoralized.
Chicago, Feb. 8.—The livestock market was demoralized here today following the raising of the federal quarantine on the stock yards. The trouble began with the establishment of an absolute quarantine against Illinois cattle through fear of hoof and mouth disease. Immediately after this news 37 car loads of cattle arrived from Whiteside and Henry counties, both of which were supposed to be under rigid quarantine. This arrival necessitated holding 1,300 car loads of cattle outside the yards, while the run-ways and pens through which the suspected animals had traveled were coated with disinfectant. The Pennsylvania quarantine cut off about 60 per cent of the shipments to the east from this city.

HOLDS BOARD HAD NO RIGHT TO HAVE ONLY UNION SHOPS DO WORK

California Supreme Court Decision Affects Relation Between Union Labor and All California Cities.

San Francisco, Feb. 8.—In a decision affecting the relations between union labor and all California cities, the state supreme court held today that the San Francisco board of supervisors had no right to resolve that all city printing be done by union shops.

Further the court held that the city had no right to stipulate that all work done for it shall be paid at a rate of not less than $3 a day and that the working day shall not exceed eight hours.

In both instances the court ruled that the provisions of the city charter making competitive bidding mandatory for all contract work invalidated the action of the supervisors. Only on piece work jobs, done by day labor, could the city set a minimum wage and working day. The city printing was awarded in 1913 to the Neill Publishing house, which later was found to be an open shop. Under the union labor resolution of the supervisors Mayor Rolph refused to sign the contract. The company took the case to the courts.

TO BRING UP CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITORY AMENDMENT TODAY

DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 8.—At a secret caucus held by the "drys" in the senate this afternoon it was determined that the temperance forces have sufficient strength to drag the constitutional prohibitory amendment from the senate constitutional amendment committee, as provided in the Francis resolution, to be acted on at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning as a special order of business.

Finding that there is no hope whatever, in the "wets" being able to block the action on the prohibitory amendment, Senator Enger, chairman of the constitution amendment committee, announced to the caucus that he would call a meeting of the committee at nine o'clock tomorrow morning to give the liquor interests a chance to report the amendment out so as to avoid a fight in the senate.

QUARANTINE RICHMOND YARDS

Richmond, Va., Feb. 8.—Governor Stuart today placed the Union Stock Yards here under quarantine after the discovery of foot and mouth disease among cattle. The legislature appropriated $10,000 for fighting the disease in Virginia.

"DRY" REPUBLICANS TO SUPPORT SHURTLEFF

TRY TO PERSUADE ADMINISTRATION DEMOCRATS TO VOTE FOR HIM

"Wets" Contend "Drys" Cannot Elect Their Men Even With Democratic Aid—Republicans May Hold Caucus Today—Lucy Holds Speaker Must Be Elected From Membership.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 8.—Members of the legislature who returned to the capital tonight for the opening tomorrow of the sixth week of the session, brought no outward indication that the speakership deadlock would be broken.

Attorney General Lucy late today issued an opinion in which he held that a speaker must be elected from the membership of the house.

Contending that there is nothing in the state constitution which would prohibit an outsider from being elected speaker, several members had started a boom for John G. Oglesby, former lieutenant governor.

All of the representatives who had returned tonight stated that they were hopeful that the house would be organized this week, but could show no means by which this could be accomplished.

"Dry" Republicans held a meeting tonight and decided to throw their support to former Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff of Marengo. They announced that they would vote for Shurtleff, beginning with the first ballot tomorrow and they were bringing strong pressure to bear upon the administration Democrats to vote for him. However, the wets contended that even with the votes of the Democrats the drys could not get enough votes to elect their man.

There was slight hope that the wet Republicans and wet Democrats will unite on a candidate. Representative Currant, leader of the seventeen wets who bolted the Republican caucus, said his men would not vote for a wet Democrat.

It was announced tonight that there probably would be another conference of Republicans tomorrow morning before the session, in one more effort to agree upon a nominee. The Republicans are said to have eliminated from the race every one of their number and there was little prospect for an agreement at tomorrow's meeting. Already the Republicans have twice abandoned their conference, unable to agree upon a candidate.

It was reported here tonight that the transportation committee of the Chicago city council has framed an amendment to the public utilities act which provides for home rule for Chicago in the handling of public utilities and that an attempt will be made to pass the bill before the mayoralty election should the speakership deadlock be broken by that time.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS NARROWLY AVERT LYING AT MARYVILLE

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Feb. 8.—A lynching was narrowly averted at Maryville, Illinois, near here today when deputy sheriffs smuggled out of jail and away from an angry mob of 200 miners a man suspected of being one of a gang of swindlers which has made victims of miners in all parts of Illinois.

The gang has been selling forged certificates purporting to have been signed by the state board of miners' examiners and permitting the holder to work in a mine.

ORDERS EXPULSION OF NEUTRALS FROM ALSACE

Berne, Switzerland, Feb. 8.—via Paris, (4:55 p. m.)—The German government has decreed the expulsion of neutrals from the province of Alsace. The order strikes principally at Italians and Swiss. In this region there are only a few Americans, they being for the most part manufacturers. The number of persons of Swiss nationality in Alsace is estimated at between 4,000 and 5,000. The Swiss government however, has received assurances that many exceptions will be granted.

TO CONSIDER SALE ONLY IN CASE OF SEIZURE

New York, Feb. 8.—The sale of the cargo of the American steamship Wilhelmmina to the Belgian Relief commission will not be considered its owners said unless and until the ship is seized by the British authorities according to a statement issued today by Norvin L. Lindbergh, and former Senator Charles A. Towne, counsel for the W. L. Green Commission company of St. Louis, owners of the cargo.

TO INTERCEDE FOR VILLAREAL

Washington, Feb. 8.—Secretary Bryan tonight directed that representations be made at Mexico City in behalf of Felicitos Villareal who is said to have been sentenced to death by General Obregon. Villareal was a member of Carranza's cabinet and after the Aguas Calientes convention became a minister of the Gutierrez government. Telegrams appealing to the American government to aid him reached the state department from prominent business men in New York with whom Villareal dealt when he was on a mission to this country for Carranza.

War News Summarized

In none of the various battlefields in Europe has any progress been made. Official statements give no information beyond references to what are now considered minor incidents in the war.

Comparative quiet reigns in France and Flanders while the hundreds of thousands constituting the fighting forces in Russian Poland seem to be deadlocked in a series of desperate engagements that have resulted in great losses. The British parliament has taken up the matter of army estimates and has been asked by the British government to give it a black check for army purposes.

If it does it will have voted supplies without limit for an army of 3,000,000 men.

Premier Asquith, in a statement before the house of commons, announced that the British casualties including killed, wounded and missing up to Feb. 4th, numbered 104,000.

An indication that Italy is pursuing her policy of waiting and watching is found in a royal decree which orders that soldiers of the second category classes of 1893 and 1891 shall be retained under the colors until May 31st next. As service in the Italian army covers a period of nineteen years these men should have been returned to their homes.

From Berlin comes the announcement that the naval measures of Germany against British commerce are in no sense a blockade but no hostile action against neutral shipping is contemplated and that Germany's warships will endeavor to avoid sinking American or neutral ships, taking every precaution to that end.

WILSON AND ADVISERS DISCUSS DANGERS TO NEUTRAL SHIPPING

Conference on Questions Arising From German Notification Forecasts Diplomatic Correspondence.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Informal discussion by President Wilson with his advisers, of the German notification and the dangers to which neutral ships may be subjected in the newly prescribed war zones around Great Britain and Ireland and the use by the British liner Lusitania of the American flag, foreshadowed today a diplomatic correspondence between the United States and both Great Britain and Germany. In each case the American government, because of its neutrality, cannot discuss the rules which the belligerents may adopt toward each other. The prescription of the war zone itself, however, or the use of a neutral flag by belligerent owned vessels as a strategem of war has not given the American officials concern so much as the prospect that these acts may endanger the lives of American citizens whose right to travel on the high seas on neutral ships during time of war is intimated will be vigorously defended.

Pending the receipt of the German foreign office memorandum from Ambassador Gerard and a report of the Lusitania incident from Ambassador Page no action will be taken. Tomorrow the situation will be fully discussed at a meeting of the president and his cabinet.

WOULD FINE INTOXICATED PERSONS WHO DRIVE AUTOS

DES MOINES, Feb. 8.—Intoxicated persons who operate automobiles on the streets or highways will be subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than $50 if a measure to be introduced by Senator Allen tomorrow is adopted by the general assembly.

The bill provides that persons who are in charge of automobiles shall be sober and that persons under the influence of liquor shall be barred from the use of country roads.

TO WITHDRAW FEDERAL TROOPS FROM ARKANSAS MINE REGION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Secretary Garrison today decided to withdraw from Arkansas the first squadron of the fifth cavalry, sent into the state several months ago to enforce federal court orders during a coal mining strike.

The troops will return to Fort Sherman, Illinois, within a few days.

The squadron comprises Troops A, B, C, and D, and a machine gun platoon. It was ordered into the Prairie Creek district in November, upon the complaint of the department of justice that strikers were interfering with the execution of court orders. There has been no trouble since the soldiers reached the scene and recently Major N. M. McClure, commanding the squadron, recommended their withdrawal. This was approved by the department of justice.

U. S. STEEL HEADURGES COURAGE IN BUSINESS

FARRELL ADVISES CONFIDENCE IN A RESTORATION OF PROSPERITY

Declares Best Efforts Should be Put Forth to Do Everything Practicable to Increase the Number of Working People—Says Elements of Prosperity are at Hand.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 8.—Courage and co-operation in business and confidence in a restoration of prosperity was the advice expressed by James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel corporation, in an address before the Engineers Society of Western Pennsylvania here tonight.

Among reasons for encouragement Mr. Farrell quoted "eminent European and American authorities" as calculating that the United States excess of exports over imports in 1915 may easily reach one billion dollars; and he declared that the balance of trade in favor of the United States for the opening month of the year is at the rate of $1,500,000,000 a year.

"The years of greatest prosperity in the United States have been when the balances were large in our favor," asserted Mr. Farrell. "It is not imprudent to predict that our total farm values for the current year, for the first time in the annals of this or any other country, will pass the $10,000,000,000 mark."

"I feel safe in saying that, if you will strain a point just now and trade a little more with each other and talk encouragingly as to conditions, rather than pessimistically, the business of the country will take on a momentum which will carry us into better times, and what is more important create more employment for labor. Our best efforts should be put to stimulate activity in business and do everything practicable to increase the number of working people, not only in the industries in this community, but throughout the whole country."

"The elements of prosperity are at hand; the developments from day to day are favorable. The steel trade has been called the barometer of business, there is a marked increase in orders and in operations; more men are obtaining employment and the trade movement is progressing and encouraging and we should do everything practicable to sustain and advance it."

Mr. Farrell said that up to within a few weeks it seemed as if the prospects of a material improvement in business were doubtful, but apparently, the tide has turned and each day records a marked improvement in the general situation. "It seems to me," he continued, "that the time has come when co-operation should manifest itself among business men to bring about conditions which will result in a larger employment of labor."

"As business men let us give our attention to solving industrial unrest by creating work, by tolling and spinning and creating a normal circulation in the arteries of commerce. In my judgment a campaign for the upbuilding of the business of our country on a scale commensurate with modern needs and opportunities should be inaugurated. Our problems are national; let us hear more of national common sense and see if we cannot get back to work. Public sentiment and governmental inclination unmistakably favor a live and let live attitude towards business."

"Whatever may be the political outcome of the European war it is of vital consequence to America's future position that advantage be taken of the present opportunity to exploit the products of American invention, enterprise and quality, to establish a firm foothold in foreign markets."

WOLGAST MEETS SMITH.

Columbus, O., Feb. 8.—Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion, and Cy Smith of Hoboken, N. J., boxed a twelve round no decision bout here tonight. ARREST FIVE ALLEGED LEADERS IN FIGHT AT FERTILIZER PLANT Crowd Attacks Workers and General Fight Ensues—Police Rescue Men Under Attack.

Roosevelt, N. J., Feb. 8.—Five arrests were made by special police at the Liebig Fertilizer plant here tonight as the result of a renewal of attacks made this morning upon workers at the plant. Three strikers, a strikers' wife and a sympathizer were taken into custody as leaders of the demonstration.

They will be given a hearing tomorrow morning on the charge of disorderly conduct.

When the workers left the plant tonight a crowd of men and women awaited them at the gates. Upon the appearance of Chief Engineer Elmer Osborne and clerks, who were beaten by a crowd of women this morning, the crowd swarmed past the special policemen and a general fight ensued.

The police, charging the combatants, rescued the men under attack and arrested the alleged leaders. The crowd then fell back and the employees of the plant went to their homes without further molestation.

COTTON LOAN FUND PLAN HAS VIRTUALLY ENDED EXISTENCE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Loans under the $135,000,000 cotton loan fund plan have been closed and the plan virtually ended its existence tonight with an announcement from the central committee—the federal reserve board members acting as individuals—of the procedure for the future.

Applications for loans from cotton producers in the south amounted to $28,000.

Subscribers to the fund, the committee points out, have not been released from liability for their proportionate share of the $28,000, though if all the loans are paid, it probably will not be necessary to call any subscriptions.

INTRODUCES MILITARY BUDGET

Tennant Pleads for More Recruits in Measure in House of Commons.

London, Feb. 8.—(9:07 p. m.)—The introduction of the largest military budget in the history of Great Britain shared the stage of the house of commons today with a discussion of the activities of the official press bureau. The task of introducing the budget fell upon the parliamentary secretary of the war office, H. J. Tennant, as Earl Kitchener, secretary for war, is a member of the house of lords.

Two more days have been allotted to the discussion of these "army estimates," which are called a blank check budget because the accounts of actual money which will be expended under them are represented by nominal or token figures. Secretary Tennant's speech was a stirring tribute to the British army and a plea for more recruits.

DACIA IS HELD UP.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 8.—The Steamer Dacia, cotton-laden from Galveston, was held up on the second stage of her voyage to Rotterdam tonight after eleven or more of her crew refused to continue in service. The estate is ordered held in trust until Louis Tilden, a son now 14 years old, reaches the age of 25 years when the two sons will receive $100,000 each.

RUSS ADOPT OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS IN POLAND

GERMANS INSIST PLANS TO TAKE WARSAW ARE BEING PUSHED

Czar's Forces Declare Prussian Attack Reached its Climax Several Days Ago—Situation in France and Flanders is Without Change.

London, Feb. 8.—(8:06 p. m.)—Russia's unexpected adoption of offensive operations in Poland, from which the Germans apparently have been withdrawing some forces both to the north and south, furnishes the most striking feature of the military situation on the European continent.

From German sources it is insisted that the plans for the capture of Warsaw still are being pushed. But the Russians claim several minor successes at various points and declare that the German attack reached its climax several days ago. Another huge segment of the Russian army is continuing its efforts for a firm foothold in the Carpathians, but it is admitted that the Germans and Austrians have gained some ground. At one point a severe snow storm is said to have aided the Austro-Hungarian troops in an action, which Vienna states has resulted in heavy losses to the Russian forces in Dukla Pass.

From east Prussia there is little news, the Germans claiming to have the situation well in hand, so far as concerns the prevention of a further Russian advance without the most severe fighting. In France and Flanders the situation is without change, both sides are alert for the slightest indication of activity on the part of their opponents. The British and French are undoubtedly taking advantage of every day's delay to throw in reinforcements.

Army affairs came up for discussion in the British house of commons today and the prime minister made the statement that the British casualties from the beginning of this war had reached a total of 1,044,000. This is an average of 4,000 men weekly, in killed, wounded and missing.

APPROVE PLAN OF MAYO BROTHERS TO ESTABLISH FOUNDATION

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 8.—The plans of Drs. William and Charles Mayo of Rochester, Minnesota to establish a $1,000,000 foundation for medical research and to place the foundation under certain restrictions, in the hands of the University of Minnesota board of regents, was approved by the University Medical College advisory board.

It is proposed that the interest from the fund be used in research work at Rochester, open to graduate university medical students. Details of the plan have not been worked out.

The advisory board recommended the proposition to the board of regents who will meet on Feb. 18 to consider the matter. Should the regents approve it the foundation will be established before the end of the school year according to the Drs. Mayo.

DOUGHERTY TURNS HIS PROPERTY OVER TO PEORIA SCHOOL BOARD

Withdraws Civil Suits and It is Expected He Will be Given a New Pardon.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Newton C. Dougherty, once superintendent of schools of Peoria, president of a bank there and executive officer of the national education association who spent five years in prison on charges of embezzlement, today turned over to the Peoria school board, quit claim deeds to $200,000 worth of property, all he had.

Dougherty was paroled after serving five years of his sentence. A full pardon was granted later, after which Dougherty started civil suit to recover property he had turned over to school trustees to liquidate embezzlements. Objection to this suit resulted in a revival of old indictments and Dougherty was brought to trial and sentenced to go back to the penitentiary. Dougherty has withdrawn his civil suits and given the deed to his property and it is expected the new conviction will result in a new pardon.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. CLAYTON.

The following resolutions have been passed by Rev. James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R., in memory of Mrs. Joseph Clayton:

In the passing away of our much loved Mrs. Joseph Clayton, the Rev. James Caldwell Chapter of the D. A. R., loses a member who gave to the society her best efforts, unselfish service and allegiance to the high aims of the national organization.

Her wise counsel and broad judgment were most helpful and her loyalty and reliability were never doubted, her sincerity was a marked characteristic.

The strong personality of this generous, queenly woman and gifted speaker, gave her a place distinctly her own and lent enthusiasm to all subjects she presented and awakened an enduring affection in the hearts of those who knew her.

The memory of her fidelity and eloquent words will incite to highest endeavor and be an inspiration to us in the work of the chapter.

We desire to place upon record an expression of our sorrow and sense of loss, as we offer this in memorial tribute to our beloved member who has entered the Garden of Sleep.

Be it resolved: that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, to the press and be placed on the records of the society.

Interesting Figures on Infant Mortality.

The Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor has issued the first report in its study of infant mortality in the United States. The report emphasizes the fact that this is only the first item in a proposed extended inquiry. While it carefully avoids conclusions, certain conditions are pointed out as coincident with a high infant death rate in the one city under consideration. It finds that the infant death rate varied in different parts of the same city. In the poorest section, where sanitary conditions were at their worst, the rate was 271 per thousand babies, or more than five times that of the choice residential section of the city.

The city bears its share of responsibility for infant deaths. A high rate of infant deaths was found in coincidence with neglected streets and insanitary housing. The report shows for 135 miles of streets and alleys only 41 miles of sewers and 36 outlets, only 64 per cent of the streets paved, and but 11 per cent of the alleys. In houses where water had to be carried in from outdoors, the infant death rate was 198 per thousand, as against 118 per thousand where water was piped into the house.

These findings are based on a report as to infant mortality conditions in Johnstown, Pa. Other cities now being studied are Manchester, N. H., Brockton, Mass. and Saginaw, Mich. The city of Johnstown was chosen as the first town to be studied because of its interest as a type of town in which there are no large industries employing women, and because its size and its good birth registration permitted a study with the limited staff which the Bureau could at first assign to the work.

In her letter submitting the Johnstown report to the Secretary of Labor, Miss Julia C. Lathrop, Chief of the Children's Bureau, states that the subject of infant mortality was chosen for the first field inquiry because of its profound importance in our national life. According to an estimate of the U. S. Census Bureau at least 300,000 babies die annually in this country, which means approximately one baby out of every eight under one year of age. Leading sanitarians say that if proper measures of hygiene and sanitation were observed this number could be indefinitely reduced. The Children's Bureau is trying to learn the conditions of life most favorable for American babies.

The Democratic Deficit.

According to a Washington dispatch officials of the Wilson administration are now thoroughly alarmed over the prospect of a large treasury deficit. Even after Secretary of the Treasury, McAdoo sent out his first alarm signal, party leaders in congress were reluctant to admit publicly that the federal treasury is in bad shape. Not until a few days ago did Democratic Leader Underwood make a candid statement to the house that a large treasury deficit is in prospect for "next year" unless conditions change materially or unless congress cuts appropriations all along the line. Many Democrats are now bawling the fact that they sacrificed the $53,000,000 annual revenue from sugar. Others are expressing regret that the Democratic congress backed water on raw wool, after a Democratic house had gone on record in favor of a duty on wool that was designed to produce $15,000,000 annually.

Up to date, however, the Democratic leaders in congress and administration officials have been unable to get the rank and file sufficiently exercised to stand for radical cuts in appropriations. Henry C. Clegg, the well known New York banker issues a weekly letter, no doubt for "advertising purposes," but it is undeniable that he keeps in close touch with things financial and his present optimism can be taken as reflecting general business conditions. He says: "In spite of world-wide uncertainty, business affairs in the United States display continued recuperative tendencies. The improvement is slow, too slow to satisfy American optimism, but each week shows a distinct gain, both of sentiment and in the volume of trade. It is well perhaps that the gain is slow, inasmuch as it will thus prove more permanent, while premature convalescence would surely invite unpleasant setbacks. The soundness of the present forward movement is beyond question. It is based chiefly upon the abundance of loanable funds at reasonable rates and a good demand for our agricultural products at generally satisfactory prices. Undoubtedly the farmers of this country are prosperous, and this gratifying condition, coupled with the sound banking situation, is the prime source of our present national strength. These are the factors enabling us to overcome derangements which followed the war and to endure the industrial paralysis brought on by a prolonged era of public unrest and hostility to big business."

The Water Department's Good Showing for 1914

The report for the city water department presented at the council session Monday morning indicates that the department has been managed in a very business like way. After the payment of all the expenses the returns show a profit of more than $1,000 per month and it should be borne in mind that no charge has been made for hydrant rental or for water supplied the light plant or the city building. Water for fire protection is worth thousands of dollars a year and taking this into consideration shows still more forcibly how important the department is as revenue producer. It is an interesting fact too that the revenue this year is nearly $3,000 greater than any previous year and $18,683.97 more than in 1910. Certainly business methods are apparent in the management of the water department.

The Habit of Idleness.

In the testimony being given the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations the original ideas of Henry Ford, the millionaire automobile maker, are prominent. The basic principle in Mr. Ford's philosophy is the gospel of work, and he attributes most modern evils to idleness.

In every town there are sons of perpetual rest, who ornament curbstones and park benches, and slouch around generally. It takes only a little money to finance these shiftless citizens. Hand-outs of old clothes cover their nakedness, and odd jobs now and then keep them from starvation.

Work is usually an acquired taste. Boys rarely have it. As manhood comes on, the youth perceives that the prizes of life are reached only through persistent industry. The drone has a different standard, his contemplative rambling leisure suits him best of all. He would like houses and lands if they came as a free gift, but he would not pay the price of labor and effort.

He may once have tried to take his place among the world's workers. But never having formed the habit of industry, he became easily discouraged at a few failures. Mr. Ford is right, and human fiber decays fast on the park bench. Man was built to toil and serve and climb against difficulties, and against the natural human love for ease.

How to put ambition into boys who by temperament are idle and indolent, is the heart of the problem. Back on the farm the boys never used to acquire the habit of idleness. Work became a second nature. In towns there is often no work easily available for a boy to do. But work can be had by those who are determined to find it. Parents who allow a boy to grow up with out regular tasks take chances that he will drift into the grey decay of idleness.

Petitions Must Have Stamps.

The revenue department has issued a ruling which makes it necessary for candidates' petitions to have a ten cent revenue stamp attached. Up in Rock Island the ruling was made known after most of the candidates had filed and it was found necessary to withdraw the petitions and file them over again. The rule is said to apply to national, state and municipal petitions which are required by law. The petition recently filed asking for a vote on the lower salary question may be classed as municipal and possibly a stamp was required. This is a new objection to urge against the legality of the document.

MRS. FLORENCE P. HARTMANN HEARD IN BRILLIANT RECITAL

A brilliant recital was given Monday night in Music Hall at the Woman's college, by Mrs. Florence Pierron Hartmann, head of the voice department of the Illinois College of Music. Every seat in the auditorium and balcony was filled, which attested to the popularity of the singer, and the sympathy and enthusiasm of the audience was manifested throughout the entire successful musical event.

The program presented was an interesting group of English and French songs, which served to show, to the very best advantage, the singer's voice and beautiful art. Mrs. Hartmann has been heard a great many times in song recitals before a Jacksonville audience, but it is doubtful if she ever sang to a better advantage than last night nor won such unstinted praise from the audience. She possesses an unusual contralto voice of wide range, lovely quality and extreme flexibility. Her singing shows wonderful power of imagination, temperament and strong interpretative ability.

The opening group of four songs by the American composer, Chadwick, has been given by the singer with the author himself at the piano. The group served to put Mrs. Hartmann en rapport with the audience and she was graciously received.

The arias following by American composers proved delightful, the audience finding the selection by Beach "Ah, Love but a Day," of especial interest. The first part of the program was concluded with a group of three songs by Liza Lehman and of these the weird and unusual number "The Snake Charmer," was particularly fascinating and revealed the artistic touch of the singer.

Mrs. Hartmann displayed remarkable talent in the French songs which composed the second part of the program. It would be difficult to choose any from this group of greater excellence than the others. Mention should be made of the humor of the Massenet "Pitichouette" and the Wekerlin "Jeunes Fillettes" and the beautiful mezzo-vocal work in the Crepuscule" by Massenet, the Aria by Thomas and the "Dune Prison" by Hahn. In response to an insistent applause at the close of the program Mrs. Hartmann added D'Hardelet's "Dawn."

The accompaniments of the evening were in the capable hands of Miss Dean Obermeyer and at all times were in perfect sympathy with the singer. Miss Obermeyer displayed beautiful tone work, good nuance and fluent technique. The program follows:

Chadwick—"O Let Night Speak of Me." "Thou Art so Like a Flower." "The Honeysuckle," "The Danza."

Colburn—"From the Prison Windows."

Daniels—"Daybreak."

Beach—"Ah, Love But a Day!"

Lehman—"Titania's Cradle," "The Beautiful Land of Nod," "The Snake Charmer."

Coquard—"Plainte d'Ariane."

Massenet—"Pitichouette," "Noel Pâlen," "Crepuscule."

Thomas—"Connais-tu le pays?"

Hahn—"Dune Prison."

Wekerlin—"Jeunes Fillettes."

ROCKEFELLER MILLION FOR CATTLE DISEASE

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 6.—Prompted by the hog cholera ravages in the Northwest and the recent epidemic among cattle known as the "hoof and mouth disease," The Rockefeller Foundation proposes to establish a $1,000,000 animal research bureau in New Jersey. A bill designed to permit the establishment of the bureau in this state is before the legislature. A similar bill last year was vetoed by Governor Pileger, on the ground that the permit was too broad in character. A bitter fight against the establishment of the bureau was made last year by the anti-vivisectionists, who, it is expected, will be up in arms again this year. It is believed, however, that the bill will be made a law and that the Rockefeller research bureau will be established by 1916. Under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Health.

Biograph-Klaw & Earlander Feature in two acts, COUSIN PONS

Money is the theme of this powerful drama, adapted from the masterpiece of the great French writer, Balzac. The influence of wealth upon character is here depicted in striking scenes. To the gentle old man his fortune is but an instrument of good; upon his relatives and others it has a sinister effect. The story is a marvelous analysis of human motives, culminating in a series of tremendous situations which will cause "Cousin Pons" to be considered really extraordinary, featuring Vivian Prescott, Charles H. Malles, A. C. Marston.

"Locking the Stable After"

The horse is stolen is one of the favorite diversions of our Uncle Sam. Considerable agitation is being started to prohibit the export of wheat but by the time the facts are brought out our surplus wheat is gone. Professional politicians are howling for an investigation of the Baker, Grain Dealer and "Miller," blaming them for the high prices. In about 60 days they will know that the cause is the heavy exports and perhaps put an embargo on wheat and Cainsin Flour. The "horse will be gone" and prices of Flour will go higher than ever. Better get your "Cainsin" Flour from J. H. Cain & Sons while getting is good, and join the "Bake your own Bread from Cainsin Flour Club."—Cain's philosophy.

Interesting Figures on Infant Mortality.

The Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor has issued the first report in its study of infant mortality in the United States. The report emphasizes the fact that this is only the first item in a proposed extended inquiry. While it carefully avoids conclusions, certain conditions are pointed out as coincident with a high infant death rate in the one city under consideration. It finds that the infant death rate varied in different parts of the same city. In the poorest section, where sanitary conditions were at their worst, the rate was 271 per thousand babies, or more than five times that of the choice residential section of the city.

The city bears its share of responsibility for infant deaths. A high rate of infant deaths was found in coincidence with neglected streets and insanitary housing. The report shows for 135 miles of streets and alleys only 41 miles of sewers and 36 outlets, only 64 per cent of the streets paved, and but 11 per cent of the alleys. In houses where water had to be carried in from outdoors, the infant death rate was 198 per thousand, as against 118 per thousand where water was piped into the house.

These findings are based on a report as to infant mortality conditions in Johnston, Pa. Other cities now being studied are Manchester, N. H., Brockton, Mass. and Saginaw, Mich.

The city of Johnston was chosen as the first town to be studied because of its interest as a type of town in which there are no large industries employing women, and because its size and its good birth registration permitted a study with the limited staff which the Bureau could at first assign to the work.

In her letter submitting the Johnston report to the Secretary of Labor, Miss Julia C. Lathrop, Chief of the Children's Bureau, states that the subject of infant mortality was chosen for the first field inquiry because of its profound importance in our national life. According to an estimate of the U. S. Census Bureau at least 300,000 babies die annually in this country, which means approximately one baby out of every eight under one year of age. Leading sanitarians say that if proper measures of hygiene and sanitation were observed this number could be indefinitely reduced. The Children's Bureau is trying to learn the conditions of life most favorable for American babies.

The Democratic Deficit.
According to a Washington dispatch officials of the Wilson administration are now thoroughly alarmed over the prospect of a large treasury deficit. Even after Secretary of the Treasury, McAdoo sent out his first alarm signal, party leaders in congress were reluctant to admit publicly that the federal treasury is in bad shape. Not until a few days ago did Democratic Leader Underwood make a candid statement to the house that a large treasury deficit is in prospect for "next year unless conditions change materially or unless congress cuts appropriations all along the line."
Many Democrats are now bawling the fact that they sacrificed the $53,000,000 annual revenue from sugar. Others are expressing regret that the Democratic congress backed water on raw wool, after a Democratic house had gone on record in favor of a duty on wool that was designed to produce $15,000,000 annually.

Up to date, however, the Democratic leaders in congress and administration officials have been unable to get the rank and file sufficiently exercised to stand for radical cuts in appropriations.

Clews is Optimistic.
Henry Clews, the well known New York banker issues a weekly letter, no doubt for "advertising purposes," but it is undeniable that he keeps in close touch with things financial and his present optimism can be taken as reflecting general business conditions. He says:

"In spite of world-wide uncertainty, business affairs in the United States display continued recuperative tendencies. The improvement is slow, too slow to satisfy American optimism, but each week shows a distinct gain, both of sentiment and in the volume of trade. It is well perhaps that the gain is slow, inasmuch as it will thus prove more permanent, while premature convalescence would surely invite unpleasant setbacks."

"The soundness of the present forward movement is beyond question. It is based chiefly upon the abundance of loanable funds at reasonable rates and a good demand for our agricultural products at generally satisfactory prices. Undoubtedly the farmers of this country are prosperous, and this gratifying condition, coupled with the sound banking situation, is the prime source of our present national strength. These are the factors enabling us to overcome derangements which followed the war and to endure the industrial paralysis brought on by a prolonged era of public unrest and hostility to big business."

The Water Department's Good Showing for 1914

The report for the city water department presented at the council session Monday morning indicates that the department has been managed in a very business like way. After the payment of all the expenses the returns show a profit of more than $1,000 per month and it should be borne in mind that no charge has been made for hydrant rental or for water supplied the light plant or the city building. Water for fire protection is worth thousands of dollars a year and taking this into consideration shows still more forcibly how important the department is as revenue producer. It is an interesting fact too that the revenue this year is nearly $3,000 greater than any previous year and $18,683.97 more than in 1910. Certainly business methods are apparent in the management of the water department.

The Habit of Idleness.

In the testimony being given the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations the original ideas of Henry Ford, the millionaire automobile maker, are prominent. The basic principle in Mr. Ford's philosophy is the gospel of work, and he attributes most modern evils to idleness.

In every town there are sons of perpetual rest, who ornament curbstones and park benches, and slouch around generally. It takes only a little money to finance these shiftless citizens. Hand-outs of old clothes cover their nakedness, and odd jobs now and then keep them from starvation.

Work is usually an acquired taste. Boys rarely have it. As manhood comes on, the youth perceives that the prizes of life are reached only through persistent industry. The drone has a different standard, his contemplative ruminant leisure suits him best of all. He would like houses and lands if they came as a free gift, but he would not pay the price of labor and effort.

He may once have tried to take his place among the world's workers. But never having formed the habit of industry, he became easily discouraged at a few failures. Mr. Ford is right, and human fiber decays fast on the park bench. Man was built to toil and serve and climb against difficulties, and against the natural human love for ease.

How to put ambition into boys who by temperament are idle and indolent, is the heart of the problem. Back on the farm the boys never used to acquire the habit of idleness. Work became a second nature. In towns there is often no work easily available for a boy to do. But work can be had by those who are determined to find it.

Parents who allow a boy to grow up with out regular tasks take chances that he may drift into the grey decay of idleness.

Petitions Must Have Stamps.

The revenue department has issued a ruling which makes it necessary for candidates' petitions to have a ten cent revenue stamp attached. Up in Rock Island the ruling was made known after most of the candidates had filed and it was found necessary to withdraw the petitions and file them over again. The rule is said to apply to national, state and municipal petitions which are required by law. The petition recently filed asking for a vote on the lower salary question may be classed as municipal and possibly a stamp was required. This is a new objection to urge against the legality of the document.

MRS. FLORENCE P. HARTMANN HEARD IN BRILLIANT RECITAL

A brilliant recital was given Monday night in Music Hall at the Woman's college, by Mrs. Florence Pierron Hartmann, head of the voice department of the Illinois College of Music. Every seat in the auditorium and balcony was filled, which attested to the popularity of the singer, and the sympathy and enthusiasm of the audience was manifested throughout the entire successful musical event.

The program presented was an interesting group of English and French songs, which served to show, to the very best advantage, the singer's voice and beautiful art. Mrs. Hartmann has been heard a great many times in song recitals before a Jacksonville audience, but it is doubtful if she ever sang to a better advantage than last night nor won such unstinted praise from the audience. She possesses an unusual contralto voice of wide range, lovely quality and extreme flexibility. Her singing shows wonderful power of imagination, temperament and strong interpretative ability.

The opening group of four songs by the American composer, Chadwick, has been given by the singer with the author himself at the piano. The group served to put Mrs. Hartmann in rapport with the audience and she was graciously received.

The arias following by American composers proved delightful, the audience finding the selection by Beach "Ah, Love but a Day," of especial interest. The first part of the program was concluded with a group of three songs by Liza Lehman and of these the weird and unusual number "The Snake Charmer," was particularly fascinating and revealed the artistic touch of the singer.

Mrs. Hartmann displayed remarkable talent in the French songs which composed the second part of the program. It would be difficult to choose any from this group of greater excellence than the others. Mention should be made of the humor of the Massenet "Pitichouette" and the Wekerlin "Jeunes Fillettes" and the beautiful mezzo-voco work in the Crepuscule" by Massenet, the Aria by Thomas and the "Dune Prison" by Hahn. In response to an instant applause at the close of the program Mrs. Hartmann added D'Hardelot's "Dawn."

The accompaniments of the evening were in the capable hands of Miss Dean Obermeyer and at all times were in perfect sympathy with the singer. Miss Obermeyer displayed beautiful tone work, good nuance and fluent technique. The program follows:

Chadwick—"O Let Night Speak of Me," "Thou Art so Like a Flower," "The Honeysuckle," "The Danza."

Colburn—"From the Prison Windows," Daniels—"Daybreak," Beach—"Ah, Love But a Day!"

Lehman—"Titania's Cradle," "The Beautiful Land of Nod," "The Snake Charmer."

Coquard—"Plainte d'Ariane."

Massenet—"Pitichouette," "Noel Païen," "Crepuscule."

Thomas—"Connais-tu le pays?" Hahn—"Dune Prison," Wekerlin—"Jeunes fillettes."

ROCKEFELLER MILLION

FOR CATTLE DISEASE

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 8.—Prompted by the hog cholera ravages in the Northwest and the recent epidemic among cattle known as the "hoof and mouth disease", The Rockefeller Foundation proposes to establish a $1,000,000 animal research bureau in New Jersey. A bill designed to permit the establishment of the bureau in this state is before the legislature. A similar bill last year was vetoed by Governor Pileger, on the ground that the permit was too broad in character. A bitter fight against the establishment of the bureau was made last year by the anti-vivisectionists, who, it is expected, will be up in arms again this year. It is believed, however, that the bill will be made a law and that the Rockefeller research bureau will be established by 1916. Under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Health.

GUARANTEED FOR COUGHS

A Good, Cheap, Home-Made Remedy

Money spent for the old-style, ready-made cough syrups in bottles holding only 2 to 2 1-2 ounces is very largely wasted, because most of them are composed principally of sugar and water. Yet you have to pay the same price as if it was all medicine. Stop wasting this money. You can make a better cough medicine at home at one-fifth the cost. Merely go to Gilbert's drug store and ask for 2 ounces (50c worth) of Schiffmann's Concentrated Expectant. Mix this with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of boiling water, which makes a full pint (16 ounces). This new, simple, pleasant remedy is guaranteed to relieve the worst cough or cold. Also excellent for Bronchitis, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough. One bottle will make enough home-made medicine to probably last the whole family the entire winter. Children like it, it is so pleasant to take. It positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. It is altogether different from all others. Keep it on hand in case of emergency and stop each cough before it gets a firm hold. These druggists, in fact druggists everywhere, have been authorized to return the money in every single case where it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found the best remedy ever used. You will be the sole judge, and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy. Your druggist has this remedy or will get it for you, if not, order direct of R. J. Schiffmann, St. Paul, Minn.—Advertisement.

ALEXANDER WOMAN BURNED BY KEROSENE EXPLOSION

Mrs. Wade H. Schott Suffers Burns Around the Face and Arms as Result of Accident Before Noon Monday.

While preparing dinner Monday shortly before 12 o'clock Mrs. Schott, wife of Dr. Wade H. Schott of Alexander, sought to facilitate the starting of the kitchen fire by the use of kerosene. The stream of oil is thought to have reached a hidden spark as there was an explosion which resulted in severe burns for Mrs. Schott. Fortunately, her clothing did not become ignited.

Her condition is not serious and though the burns are painful in the extreme it is not thought that permanent disfigurement will occur. Dr. L. W. Fulton of New Berlin, who chanced to be in the village at the time, was called and attended the injured woman. Mrs. Schott's hair and eye brows were singed and she received burns about the face, hands and arms. Dr. Schott was in Jacksonville at the time and was not able to make the trip home until evening.

HOLE BURNED IN ROOF.

A fire Monday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth McCullough, 313 East College avenue, burned a hole in the roof about four feet in diameter but thanks to the assistance of neighbors and to the prompt work of the department with the chemical apparatus, no serious damage resulted.

ADULT S. S. WORK.

"The New Phase of Adult Department Work in the Sunday School With Especial Reference to Church History" was the theme of an interesting discourse by F. M. DANIEL J. QUAD DIES.

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 8.—Daniel J. Quad, former Springfield real-estate dealer died here tonight at the age of 73 years.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD

The carmen at Wilkesbarre, Pa., are claiming a victory, by the submission of their grievances to arbitration.

President Wilson believes that labor men who backed the immigration bill which he vetoed will grasp the larger aspect which he presented in his argument against it.

In Massachusetts, under the industrial accident law, nearly $2,300,000 was paid last year by insurance companies to injured employees and relatives of those killed. There were 95,962 non-fatal accidents and 608 fatal cases reported.

Nine nurses in Wesley Memorial Hospital in Chicago claim they are repeatedly forced to work 15 or 16 hours a day. The work of mercy needs no urging in the feminine heart, but when demanded there is a difference of view.

"The immeasurably better conditions of the beginning of this century over those at the beginning of the last are attributable directly to the influence of labor organizations."

—Rev. James S. Myers in the Topeka Capital.

Convict labor is a hard nut for the Missouri legislature to crack. It is said that the investigating committee will recommend abolishing the contract system and the establishment of a system of using the convicts on state work.

Social insurance is among the improvements being considered by the United States Industrial Relations commission, as a means of meeting the unemployment, occupational disease, accident and similar troubles in industry. Such a recommendation would undoubtedly be along the lines of the German plan, already in force.

In labor circles it is recognized that the get-together of the younger Rockefeller and the miners' representatives is sincere on both sides, their mutual understanding of motives and conditions will go a long way toward the betterment of mining conditions, and that this long-desired understanding will bear fruit in other industries.

The importance of the supreme court decision establishing the unconstitutionality of the laws of 13 states and Porto Rico in regard to coercion by employers, cannot be overestimated. That is nullifies the protect the organized workers from individual harsh treatment is conceded, and no concealment is made of the joy of employers affected.

BEARDSTOWN COUPLE RETURNED TO MORGAN COUNTY JAIL

Frank Milton and Ella Davis Were Given Preliminary Hearing in Beardstown Monday and Return to This City.

Frank Milton, alias Frank Davis, and Ella Drake, alias Ella Davis, his wife, who were arrested here Saturday, charging them with the murder of Annie Trimmer in a cabin near Beardstown, the night of Oct. 14, 1914, and were put in the Morgan county jail, were taken to Beardstown Monday where they were given a preliminary hearing.

The hearing resulted in the man being held without bail and the woman was held under a $1,000 bond. As there was no place in Beardstown to keep the prisoners in separate cells they were returned to the county jail here, by Officer Epler and Deputy True, the trip being made in an automobile.

The trial for the couple has been set for February 16th at 2 o'clock in the court at Beardstown.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

A number of the teachers at the Woman's college were hostesses at an informal reception given for Mrs. Hartmann last night in her studio, following the concert. An hour socially was spent and during the time light refreshments were served.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Buhrman at their home on South Main street, entertained the teachers and members of the Delta Alpha class of the Central Christian church Sunday school. This is a class of young ladies taught by Miss Marie Finney and the relations existing between teacher and scholars are very pleasant. The effort is made to have the young people find pleasure and profit in studying the Bible and the social feature of the work maintained by the teacher is one productive of much good. The hours last evening were pleasantly spent with a little formal business, lots of sociability and nice refreshments served by the hostess and contributed by the young people.

Miss Inez McCullough and Miss Lucy Duncan entertained the members of the Caritas Girl's club yesterday at the home of Miss McCullough, 313 East College avenue, and an enjoyable evening was spent by the score of young ladies present. Prizes were won by Miss Gertrude Manchester and Mrs. Norman Kuykendall. St. Valentine's Day tokens and flags formed the decorations. Delicious refreshments were served the guests at a convenient hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bateman, northeast of the city, were recipients Monday evening of a pleasant surprise in observance of their thirty-fourth wedding anniversary. A company of neighbors gathered near their residence and proceeded in a body to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bateman bearing with them oysters and all else needed for a bounteous repast. The evening was spent with music and games and there was nothing to mar the enjoyment of an occasion, which will be remembered long by those who took part. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Fozzard, Edward Patterson and family, Ernest Dewese and family, Bert Hall and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Middleton, Harry Furry and family, W. A. Davidson and family, Edward Flynn, Henry Pullam and Samuel Woods.

The members of the Christian Endeavor society of Central Christian church entertained last evening in the parlors of the church for the new members of the society. The first part of the evening was spent socially. After refreshments were served, there was held a short devotional service at which Rev. Pontius, pastor of the church, spoke on the value and significance of the Christian Endeavor pledge. This event was the second of the Christian Endeavor week series, commemorating the founding of the society thirty-four years ago and preparatory to the International and national convention in Chicago next July.

The 27th anniversary of the Monday conversation club was held Monday afternoon in the Belles Lettres room of the Illinois Woman's college with Miss Mary Anderson and Miss Mary Johnstone. These anniversaries are always happy occasions and this one proved no exception. Each member was privileged to invite one guest and the associate members were also guests of the club. The room was made very attractive, with fern and potted plants and the guests were most cordially received.

The president Mrs. John Ward, presided and the secretary, Miss Mary Anderson gave a very bright and interesting resume of the year's work.

The following program was given: Contique De LaAmour.....Liszt Prof. Stearns.

DR. TAYLOR TALKED ABOUT PEACE

ADDRESS ONE OF MOST NOTABLE EVER HEARD HERE.

Question of Unemployment Seen as One of Greatest Pressing for Solution—Vivid Picture of War Is Given.

One of the best addresses ever heard in Jacksonville was that of Dr. Graham Taylor in Jones Memorial building yesterday morning. His theme was "Mobilization for peace." He was introduced by Pres. Rammelkamp and said in part:

"Last summer a company of which I was one, was on board an Atlantic steamer bound for the peace convention at Constance, Germany. We had meetings every day and discussed kindred subjects and invited all who desired to be with us but a day by wireless, came the announcement that Austria had declared war on Serbia and at once arose the question, 'Will there be a general European war?'"

"One man said the great business interests would never permit it as the burdens of the people were already too heavy. Another said the great labor organizations with their tens of thousands would veto war. Some thought the forces of Christianity would strongly oppose it. Some declared the instincts of humanity would negate such a proposition and so all decided that a great war was out of the question."

"We reached Cherbourg at ten p. m. and saw a dark object in the harbor and wondered what it was and learned that it was a man of war without lights and an ominous foreboding filled our hearts."

"As we journeyed to Paris we saw fields ready to be harvested; peaceful villages; families enjoying life and every evidence of peace and on we went till we reached the great metropolis of France where the first day was quiet but soon the streets were filled with eager persons; the air quivered with the national hymn; a man was killed and the assassin with a smoking revolver in his hand said the dead man had raised his voice against war and deserved death. An elderly man said war was inevitable; his sons had gone to the front and he was going and didn't expect to return."

"We saw long lines of men march silently by, some cavalry, some infantry and some artillery; one cavalryman as he rode held by the hand his wife who weeping, walked by his side. There were long lines of working men, some with nothing and others with gunny sacks containing what few things they had been able to secure before being hurried to the ranks. Beside the line walked weeping women and children feeling that it would be the last time they would look on the features of husbands or fathers. At the stations soldiers occupied the space and the trains were for their transportation while tearful wives and mothers stood by and waved a sad adieu as the cars rolled away."

"At the consulates all was bustle and confusion. People were clamoring for passports to get away and were told they couldn't leave if they had no passports and couldn't stay if they had none. French scrip of no value and banks suspended payment of checks. Surely it was gold or silver there and no mistake."

"We tried to wire to Constance; they took the message but it was not received. We tried to cable home but without avail. At one hotel the landlord told us all the waiters had joined the army and at another we were told it had been taken for a hospital. I went with a throng to a police station; I advanced thirty feet in three hours only to be told I had gone to the wrong one. Men and women went around wringing their hands in despair. One pompous American said he was a bank president, a director in several prominent corporations and all that and he demanded recognition but his positions did him no good. Omnibuses were used for transporting soldiers, automobiles were commandeered and even motorcycles were taken from riders and handed over to soldiers. Soldiers were bivouacked in the streets and on the walks and German suspects were shot."

"These dreadful scenes haunt me yet. A word seemed to leap from the dictionary into intense action everywhere. Mobilize. Sentiments of patriotism were aroused and swept all before them. Like a mighty steam roller mobilizing crushed all opposition."

"It is unjust to say there were no feelings to the contrary and that laboring men and others did not raise their voices against the awful idea of war. They did gather in masses and were dispersed by the police and soldiers, both in France and England. A Bohemian battalion refused to fire on Serbians and with cruel Austrian artillery they were swept out of existence. So great was the pressure brought on them that the Socialist leader in the German Reichstag enlisted and was killed while another leader had the alternative to enlist or be shot."

"Did any churches protest? Only the eighty delegates who reached Constance to attend the peace convention and they were permitted to remain but 48 hours. The great military organization in Germany encouraged war. Uniforms for a million men were ready long before the war began and were quickly brought into use when mobilization began. The reserves were trained and equipped and at once sent into the field."

"A fervid orator was extolling the glories of war and the fame attending the man who would die for his land when a man suggested there was something more noble than that and angrily the speaker asked what it was and the reply was to live for his land and help to a better condition of things in general and promote a universal brotherhood of men and nations. Which was right?"

"Cannot we have grand ideals of peace, of heroism and gallantry in daily life and duty? Can we not conserve our vast resources for the upbuilding of mankind? The great issue now before the country is unemployment. In Chicago we have about 200,000 men out of work and generally it is no fault of theirs. I have lived there 21 years and only during a part of that time has there been plenty of work for all."

"Is there no remedy for this? This is not a new condition of things though it is now especially acute. Do you wonder men want to parade when they are hungry and only ask work? I was once in London during a great strike and I saw 25,000 men parading; a place in which anybody may say what he pleases. There was hardly a policeman in sight though over a hedge I saw some lying on the grass and all the weapons they had were insignificant clubs. When I reached home I asked a policeman, an Irishman, of course, about it and when I told him there were no policemen and no disturbances he said there could be no strike. In the British parliament they appropriated $500,000,000 for war and twenty millions for enterprises to keep men at work and forbade evictions of tenants unable to pay."

"This question of unemployment is a national issue and will have to be met. In Chicago we formed a committee to help remedy the evil. We went to the Illinois Central railroad company and told them they had a valuable franchise and should begin work on a contemplated improvement calling for millions and they agreed to do it. Such things are also in vogue in Germany as a war measure and should be resorted to in times of peace."

"In Chicago there is a peace federation and one object is to discourage cruel indemnities and try to banish feelings of bitterness on the part of warring nations after the conflict. Instead of armaments of enormous cost build works of peace and instead of taking the young men of the land three years from their usual vocations encourage them to learn the arts of peace and not of war. The laboring men are for this movement and the women too. If they had been consulted and heard would there have been any war in Europe?"

"Let peace ideas begin right here. Let us not build dreadnaughts and forts but buildings and works of peace. Let it not be the sentiment that to preserve peace we should maintain expensive armies and navies but the contrary. Let all get ready to promote peace and let the sentiment begin here spread abroad throughout the world."

"In London I saw a group of Oxford men laboring with the editor of a labor paper and the result was an editorial which made a plea for peace and a hatred, not of other nations but of war and conflict. Let our West Point schools be places where philanthropy is taught and not the art of killing our fellow men. We must begin over again and make the Divine Prince of Peace our guide and example, and not the heroes who have won fame by killing their fellowmen. On which side will you enlist? May it be for the great era of peace which may be a blessing to the world."

ENJOYING SOUTHERN VISIT.

Rippling Rhymes
Walt Mason

SUFFERING AND SUNSHINE

I find it hard to sing and dance when up and down my jaws there prance those jumping aches which rend the nerves, and spoil the temper with their curves. And yet the other pain won't do; I've walked the floor the long night through; I've cursed a blue and blooming streak, while holding hot cloths to my cheek. I've used the language of despair, I've howled and yowled and pawed the air, and kept the neighborhood awake, and none of that relieved the ache. So why not smile and dance and sing? There's nothing in the other thing; when once again those aches begin, I'll gird my loins and push a grain three times around my face and back, and hold it theretill jawbones crack. Then folks will say, "How brave he is!" He beats that Spartan youth, gee whizz! But when I yell, those people say, "He ought to take his face away; he keeps the neighborhood on thorns, because his blamed old teeth have corns; he queers our days and spoils our nights, with no respect for human rights!" The man who bravely bears his ills, and smiles while swallowing his pills, gets admiration without end, while he who groans can't find a friend.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUB OWNERS MEET TODAY TO ADOPT SCHEDULE

Will Probably Rescind Recent Order Reducing the Player Limit of each Club to 21 Men.

New York, Feb. 8.—When the National League Baseball club owners meet here tomorrow to adopt a playing schedule for the coming season they probably will rescind the order passed at their December session reducing the player limit of each club to 21 men. Last week the American League at its schedule meeting did not reduce their maximum of 25 and it is expected that the Nationals will change back to the same number of players.

Another matter which will be discussed is the advisability of making it mandatory on the clubs not to send their players to spring training quarters before March 1st. This was recommended at the last annual meeting but since that time several club owners and managers in the National League have declared that a move to this effect would be too drastic and that the clubs should be allowed to send their young players into training just as early as they deemed advisable.

WESTERN LEAGUE POSTPONES THE ADOPTION OF A SCHEDULE

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Adoption of a schedule for 1915 by the Western League has been postponed, pending the outcome of the negotiations concerning the Topeka franchise, it was announced tonight. The magnates will remain here to take what action is possible toward settling the Topeka matter and tomorrow will give a hearing to the various interests involved, including that of A. J. Savage, secretary of the Kansas City American association club who has made a bid for the franchise. Colorado Springs would welcome a Western League team, according to word from that city which reached President O'Neill this afternoon following a report that the Topeka team might be transferred there. Indications tonight were that Topeka would retain its place.

JACK CALLAGHAN SUCCEUMS TO INJURIES RECEIVED IN RACE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 8.—Jack Callaghan, the young racing driver injured yesterday in a hundred mile motor car race at Ascot Park, died today. He was impaled upon a fence post, which ran his left side, exposing the lung. Several of his ribs also were fractured.

Dust clouds raised by the racers blinded Callaghan during the twelfth mile of the contest and he ran his machine, which was then in third place, into the fence. Victor Wells, his mechanic was unhurt.

Callaghan was 25 years old and came from Kalamazoo, Mich.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING TONIGHT

The directors of the chamber of commerce will meet tonight for the first session of the present fiscal year. Naturally a number of important matters will be considered and officers are to be chosen. In accordance with the amendment to the constitution adopted at the annual meeting last week, it becomes the duty of the officers to choose the president this year, and a secretary and treasurer will also be named. John J. Reeve has filled the post of president very acceptably the past year, and while he is not a candidate or desirous of re-election, it is understood that strong pressure will be made to have him take the office for another term. Carl Weber is one of those prominently mentioned for the secretaryship, and the indications were yesterday that a majority of the directors would favor his selection. However, there is no certainty about either of these officers, and entirely different names may be given favorable consideration at the session tonight.

AMOLOX THE NEW DISCOVERY

Many Cures Reported Daily in Towns Where It Is Known. The wonderful cures that are being made by this remarkable new remedy are almost beyond belief. A young lady from Ottumwa, Ia., for many years suffered from a bad case of eczema. Her face was a sight to behold; all covered with red blotches, pustules and pimples. So unsightly was her appearance she gave up all social life. Failing to find relief with doctors and remedies, she became despondent and discouraged. After a few weeks' treatment with liquid and ointment the scaly redness disappeared, pustules healed and she was entirely cured. A few months following her mother wrote that Amolox had done wonders for her daughter, and she was married last week. Seems like a fairy tale, doesn't it? Yet this is the truth. This is only one of the many cases that are being reported in towns where Amolox has been introduced and its merits have become known. Amolox is invaluable for eczema, psoriasis, acne, tetter, barber's itch, red nose or any skin affliction. Recommended and guaranteed by Coover & Shreve. F CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Look, Mother! If Tongue Is Coated Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless—children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full direction for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Physician's Prescription For Indigestion

Important For All Those Who Suffer After Eating.

If you suffer from indigestion after eating and find that instead of the one little peppy or soda pill you used to take, it now needs two or three to stop it, it's time you called a halt and did some hard thinking.

The plain truth is that there are thousands of men and women in this country whose stomachs are dead or dying from lack of exercise while they themselves still live. They can't go on this way much longer. It's wonderful to think that powerful drugs compressed in a pill will even for a little while do the work of a human stomach. But no pill was ever made that could do it for long.

A dead stomach can't be brought to life but a slowly dying stomach can and must or its owner must soon follow. Years ago a famous physician wrote the prescription for Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets and thousands owe their very life to them today. Most stomach remedies work on the food and digest it. Mi-o-na works on the stomach and digests nothing. Mi-o-na Tablets strengthen the stomach walls, stimulate the stomach muscles and vitalize the stomach machinery into instant and normal action. The stomach starts at once to churn its food and normal, painless digestion follows.

Coover and Shreve and many other leading druggists hereabouts sell Mi-o-na Tablets, agreeing to refund money in any case where it does not do these two things. First, in ten minutes give relief from heartburn, gas, belching, acidity, sour rising, etc. Second, in thirty days completely renovate, cleanse and strengthen the stomach so it can do its own work without aid of any kind. If your own druggist thinks this well of Mi-o-na you surely ought to try it.—Advertisement.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement.

STATE EXPERT SAYS PEORIA IS BEST LIGHTED CITY

Engineer Feustal of Utility Commission Does Not Favor Municipal Ownership It Is Said—Criticism Springfield Plant Management.

The following article is taken from the Peoria Herald-Transcript, a paper which has consistently opposed all forms of municipal ownership. According to this article Robert M. Feustal, chief engineer for the State Utility Commission, has decided views in favor of private ownership of utilities, especially light plants.

"All the props went from under Alderman Henniges' municipal lighting scheme and his dreams of $30.00 arc lamps were sent ballooning in a conference with Robert M. Feustal, chief engineer of the state public utility commission, last evening.

"With his special aldermanic committee, which included Mayor Woodruff, Henniges learned that Peoria is one of the best lighted cities in the United States; that it is getting light current at fairly reasonable figures; that the Springfield system is a joke and that the much-touted Wisconsin commission plan is nine-tenths 'guff,' as the engineer himself expressed it.

"Best in U. S."

"In answering questions put to him by the aldermanic committee, Mr. Feustal said:

"In my investigations of the Peoria light system, I find that this city has an arc light for about every 70 of the inhabitants.

"Evansville, Ind., has one for about every 200.

"Right now, I cannot recall a city which is better lighted with arc lights than Peoria and I am not including the splendid ornamental light system in these figures.

"You have heard that Springfield is paying $38.50 for light. Well, Springfield is paying approximately $70 for arc lights. The Association of Commerce there has discovered this; it is trying to remedy it, but Superintendent Spalding is refusing everyone admittance to the plant. He declares he is running the show.

"Politicians in Control."

"I am from Wisconsin. I am not a citizen of the state of Illinois. In nine-tenths of the Wisconsin cities which have municipal light or water plants, they are controlled by politicians and consequently are inefficient and expensive.

"They tell you the cost of arc lights is low, but they don't tell you what the consumer pays. It is the same with their water plants. Their fire hydrant rentals are low, but the citizens pay the difference in flat rates.

"They only fool themselves. They cut the price of arcs or hydrants and raise it in commercial lighting or home use of water. It is a case of taking money from one pocket and putting it into another. It costs more, either way.

"I cannot give you advice as a representative of the state commission; but speaking as a private citizen of the state of Wisconsin your price for lights is a trifle high. Personally, I should imagine you could get a little reduction. Then you would be getting light cheaper than you could ever hope to make it with a municipal plant.

"Gives Some Figures."

"You are paying $60,000 per year and the company is giving you $5,800 worth of current free. You could not make current and deliver it for less than about .029 cents, so you see you would not have a great margin over what you are now paying.

"A municipal plant to operate your street lighting system would cost you a quarter of a million dollars. Unless you could sell some of the current this plant would be able to produce it would cost you much more than your light now costs.

"Take Up Water."

"If Peoria wants to tackle a municipal proposition let it go into the water question.

"Do you know that you are the second largest city in the United States which does not own a water plant? Indianapolis is the only one, I believe, which is larger. You need water; you cannot do without it.

"If you must tax yourselves in a municipal experiment try it first with water. If you succeed with water, then try your light plant; but you can do without light—you might use candles if necessary—but you cannot live without water."

"Will Look Around."

"Silently Mayor Woodruff and Aldermen Henniges, Wolf and Halligan sat through this storm of information. When it was ended Henniges scratched his head.

"Guess we better go over and see if Wallace won't cut the price for us a little, and let it go at that," he said.

"It was finally decided to get prices from the local and other lighting companies and submit them to the state commission to see whether they would be considered reasonable by that board, and with this agreement the committee adjourned."

FRANK MANN'S SOIL BOOK

"A Fertile Soil Is The Basis of Profitable Farming"

(Authority for the publication of this and succeeding chapters of Frank Mann's book secured from Prairie Farmer Publishing Company.)

What is the Limiting Factor in Crop Production?

If the limiting factor in crop production is some fault in the practice of farming, then when the fault is corrected the crop should give response. If the fault was in the method of plowing or cultivation, when the right method was practiced the maximum crop would be realized. If small crops were due to a poor stand, then a good stand would be the remedy; if they were due to poorly bred seed, then well-bred seed would be the remedy. But when all these faults are corrected, and the best methods practiced throughout, we still fail to obtain any large increase in yields.

If all known methods of soil tillage and crop management fail to grow a maximum crop then the trouble must lie in the soil itself. What is the need of having a perfect stand of corn when half a stand is equal to the productive capacity of the soil? What is the use of planting more highly bred seed when scrub seed will produce as much or more than the soil will properly feed? What is the use of planting seed enough to grow 100 bushel crops when the soil will furnish only food enough for 50 bushels? What is the use of using the most advanced methods known in the art of agriculture when ordinary methods will meet the maximum soil capacity?

Though no method of farming can secure yields above the capacity of the soil to feed, it is easy to hold yields below this capacity of the soil, by practicing radically wrong methods. Where the yields are held low because of some error in the methods used, such error should be ascertained and rectified.

The writer does not wish to discredit the art of farming, nor does he wish to discredit the best methods that can be used, but it should be well understood that largely increased production can not come through the adoption of any modification of methods known to the art of agriculture. It is only after the productive capacity of the soil has been increased that the best practices in the art of farming will prove of their full value. Then there will be need of well-bred seed, perfect stands and more efficient methods.

What is the Natural Capacity of the Soil?

Has any reader of this book ever grown or known of being grown on any normal, even virgin soil, except black clay loam, a crop of more than 60 bushels of corn or an equivalent in other crops, under any method that could be used, when plant food had not been added in some form, either as clover, manure or pasture, or fertilizers? Many farmers have done this when plant food had been applied, but without some addition of plant food it has rarely if ever been done. This indicates that the problem of high production is in supplying plant food and not in modifying methods of farming.

On Bois d'Arc farm during the last 30 years there have been tried many of the different practices that have been recommended for increasing yields; deep, medium and shallow plowing; subsoiling over 20 inches in depth; various methods and tools in cultivation; different methods of seeding; early and late planting; thick and thin seeding; and no great increase above the usual yields was ever secured because of any of them. If the method employed was at any great variance from well established practices the yield has sometimes fallen below the normal. Never until the soil was given intelligent treatment with reference to feeding the crop were largely increased yields secured.

Moisture a Limit to Crop Yields.

It is frequently stated that the size of the crops is usually limited by the amount of rainfall. This may be the case, but at what yield does this limit operate? The season of 1911 was the driest known for many years in many parts of eastern Illinois, where the entire dust mulch made in May was not moistened until about September 1, when the crop was practically mature. Wheat that yielded from 20 to 35 bushels had the same rainfall as that yielding 62 bushels; oats that yielded 80 bushels had no more rainfall than those that yielded 40 bushels; corn that yielded 70 bushels had no more rain than the corn that yielded 30 bushels. Moisture may limit the crops, but where is the limit?

The Science of Agriculture.

The art of agriculture is old, and consists of those practices which long experience has considered worthy of adoption. The science of agriculture is new, and consists in the application of the sciences of mathematics, chemistry, physics and biology to agriculture. When a load of corn is weighed the amount of corn is computed by the science of mathematics. The science of mathematics has been in general use a long time, and no one questions its truth. The truth of the science of chemistry is as well established as the truth of the science of mathematics, and is entitled to the same confidence. Not until the last few years has there been much science applied to agriculture.

Crops not Made of Nothing.

One of the fundamental truths established by chemical science when applied to agriculture was that "crops are not made out of nothing," but that certain chemical elements are as necessary in the growth of crops as are heat and light, and that some of these elements must be fed to the plants through the soil. What they must be fed and the manner of this feeding has now been well worked out, and is being exemplified on many demonstration fields in different parts of Illinois and on many types of soil.

Feeding crops involves two propositions, one, supplying the needed chemical elements; the other, making these elements available to the plants.

Before plants can use the elements of plant food that may be in the natural soil, or that may be applied in an inert form, certain biochemical changes, (chemical changes caused by bacteria) must have taken place that will make these elements available to the plant's use.

There are different ways in which this availability can be produced, but the one that should have our attention in practical agriculture comes from the activities in the decomposition of organic matter. A soil might contain large quantities of all the elements of plant food, but without some process of liberation by which this plant food could be made available, it would not be a fertile soil. Active organic matter is the life of a soil. Literally, as besides the chemical changes necessary, it provides the medium for the development of the necessary bacteria life.

Commercial Fertilizer not Needed.

A very common substitute for the liberating effect of decomposing organic matter is the use of caustic substances, either in mixed fertilizers or by themselves, such as land-plaster and burned lime. The use of such materials has no place in a permanent system of maintaining soil fertility as their effect is only one of stimulation, and tends to deplete the soil of its fertility to a greater extent.

The most common use of these caustic materials comes from using the mixed commercial fertilizers, which contain small amounts of plant food to give the plant a start, and include also caustic substances to force enough plant food from the soil to complete the growth of crops. It is fortunate, indeed, that the people of Illinois have been so fully instructed in the principles of permanent fertility that very little of the complete mixed commercial fertilizers have been used in the state, and without doubt they never will be used. The objection to such fertilizers is their use as substitute for the elements of plant food, and the excessive cost of the small amounts of plant food contained.

Active Organic Matter Necessary.

Active organic matter in any form of vegetable or animal matter that will decay in the soil; manure of all kinds, stubble, stalks, weeds, clover, cowpeas, straw, etc. Crop residues (cornstalks, straw, stubble, etc.) do not afford sufficient organic matter for high fertility, and it is essential that more than this be supplied. As nitrogen is the most largely used element of plant food, and as special crops must be grown to supply nitrogen, these same crops may be depended upon to supply organic matter. Then the maintenance of both nitrogen and organic matter becomes almost a single problem, as legumes serve both purposes.

To some extent organic matter can be used as a soil stimulant, as the acids formed in the decomposition of vegetable matter have the same effect as those used in mixed fertilizers. The intelligent use of such acids is legitimate when utilized for their proper purpose. The fault comes from their excessive use as soil stimulant. Crop residues or non-leguminous crops that may be grown for their organic matter, do not increase the nitrogen supply in the soil, as the nitrogen contained in them was but recently taken from the soil. Growing rye, rape, buckwheat or any other ordinary crop for the purpose of plowing under is meritorious, but its true action as a stimulant should be understood, and no dependence placed on these crops as carriers of any new supply of plant food.

Manure has to some extent the same stimulating action, especially where the nitrogen of the manure is not urgently needed by the crop. Here some of the action of the manure is its liberation of the mineral elements from the supply in the soil; so that after a time heavily manured land becomes out of balance in the plant food supply, and may give large growths of straw and stalk, without a grain yield in proportion. Manure without bedding included with it is not a very good carrier of vegetable matter, and the amount of manure required to maintain nitrogen enough for large crops, is not sufficient to furnish enough organic matter, if the manure is made from highly digested food. Nor does enough humus result from its active decomposition to keep the soil in good physical condition. This is indicated by a garden on Bois d'Arc farm where high fertility has been maintained in this way for over forty years, but the soil is not in good physical condition.

Clover, also, has a similar stimulating action, and on the rich prairie land of the corn belt, much of the increase in crops after clover, comes from its ability to liberate minerals from the soil. On Bois d'Arc farm clover was established as a crop in rotation in 1879. For a few rotations the effect of clover was realized in the crops, but the time came when the crops fell below normal expectations. About the same growth of stalk and straw was secured, but the effect of having forced the minerals from the soil more rapidly with the clover, was finally shown in reduced production of the grain itself. This liberating effect of clover is just what is desired, but it should be remembered that if the minerals are not kept supplied the effect of the clover is to wear out the soil more rapidly.

In some places there is a growing tendency to use potassium salts on soils not at all deficient in potassium, because they give increased yields. Here again, the effect is one from stimulation and cannot be depended upon for permanency. On soils that are deficient in organic matter it may be legitimate to use some caustic salts as a temporary expedient until organic matter can be added to the soil. But it must be remembered that the supply of nitrogen, vegetable matter and phosphorus will be depleted long before that of potassium.

INJECT LEGAL GYMNASICS IN CHURCH TRIAL

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 8.—The resources of legal procedure, vast and bewildering to the laity, are likely to be heavily drawn upon in the church trial of Rev. Dr. George Chalmers Richmond of St. Johns Episcopal church, who is cited to appear before the church tribunal on charges of violation of his ordination clergyman. Hearing is set for today on his demurrer against the ecclesiastical charges that had been preferred against him. Arguments will be presented on both sides.

From the official "triers" of the diocese five must be drawn by lot, and these are subject to challenge. It is believed that the selection of the jury will bring forth some bitter controversy, and it is improbable that the actual trial of the clergyman will get under way in less than two weeks.

TO SETTLE MONKEY TENNIS TITLE
San Francisco, Calif., Feb. 1.
Jocko and Jennie, athletic champions of the monkey tennis court at the Golden Gate Park Zoo, will play a series of championship singles. They are the only monkeys in the world who play tennis. Jennie is the better player, but Jocko will have his admirers in the match.
Jocko and Jennie sometimes violate the rules of the game. Jocko has been known to forget himself to the extent of walloping Jennie over the head with his racket, and Jennie has been known to return the blow.
Each afternoon Jocko calls on his beloved, tennis racket in hand, inviting Jennie to the court. Jennie is always ready to try her skill, and the habitues of the zoo wait for the fun to begin.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Corn-Mad? Use "GETS-IT," It's Sure

Makes Corns Vanish Like Magic!
A hard cup of skin makes up every corn. When you put 2 drops of "GETS-IT" on it, it shrinks up and comes right off—and there's your corn—gone by thunder! Simple as taking off your hat! That's Don't Waste Time "Hollering." "GETS-IT," World's Simplest Corn-Cure, Never Fails.

Why corn-millions have gone wild over "GETS-IT"—nothing like it ever known. Some folks, to this day, putter around with bandages, sticky tape, thick plasters, corn "pulling" salves, rouge corns out with knives, snip them with scissors, make them bleed and then howl because they can't get rid of sore corns. Use "GETS-IT." There's nothing to do but apply 2 drops. The work is done. "GETS-IT" does the rest. No pain, no fussing, no changing shoes, no limping, it never fails. Try it tonight for any corn, callus, wart or bunion. Be sure that you get "GETS-IT" and nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Armstrong's drug store—J. A. Obermeyer.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Easier, Quicker and Without the Blister

There's no sense in mixing up a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can so easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white MUSTEROLE. MUSTEROLE is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of a pleasant white ointment. It takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster, and will not blister!

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a yellow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

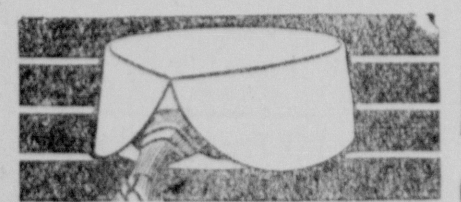

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Water Supply.

Since the 8th of June, 1914, we have pumped at least 75 per cent of our total water supply from the north end wells, the power being furnished from the municipal light plant, which power amounted to an average of $621.41 per month. These pumps have been in operation almost continuously from the date mentioned up to this time, and are yet furnishing 75 per cent of the water used.

These wells have been of inestimable value to the city, as for three of the driest years in succession this locality has ever experienced they have furnished us with such a large amount of good, clean water, as to enable us to run through the entire year without any inconvenience to our water consumers or citizens in general.

The street sprinkling was continued through the entire season. At the same time we have at all times an ample supply in the reservoir on College Hill for fire protection or other emergency. This fact was especially gratifying to this department at the time of the recent fire at Andrew's lumber yard, and we feel that our city has fared much better in regard to its water supply than many of our neighboring cities during recent years.

But yet we hope for still better service. An effort is being made and should be strenuously pushed to develop the north end water plant. If the full supply were derived from this source it would effect a saving in running expenses of this department of at least five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars per year, besides the innumerable benefits that an ample supply of good, clean water would bring. When this supply is secured the 10 inch main should be continued from Hockenhill street, its present end, to some point of connection with the large main leading to the reservoir and the stand-pipe on College Hill.

Probably the least expensive yet effective route would be on Allen avenue, crossing and connecting the 6 inch mains on East Independence avenue, Lafayette avenue and East North street.

Then on the boulevard on the east side of Brown street and connect with the 8 inch main on East State street at this point. This extension would be practically straight and a great relief to the pumps, which should then pump into the stand pipe on College Hill, the overflow going into the reservoir, until funds are available to building more standpipes, thereby furnishing a better pressure to a large number of water consumers on the higher parts of the city, especially Illinois college, where higher pressure is so badly needed.

Improvements to North End Water Plant.

Some substantial improvements have been made at the north end pumping station the past year by this department under the direction of the commissioner of public property.

Two centrifugal motor driven pumps have been installed, one of one million gallons capacity, and one of two million gallon capacity.

A concrete tank has been built and the water mains leading from the wells have been raised and separately connected into this tank at the outlet. With this arrangement the flow of each well is at all times in plain view and any failure of any particular well may be readily seen and reported by the engineer and the necessary repairs promptly made.

Repairs.

Only very slight repairs have been made at the south end pumping station during the past year, as it was hoped by the administration that a full supply of water might be obtained from the Widenham & Daub wells.

Improvements on Water Mains.

There has been seven of the old wooden valve boxes removed from our water mains this year, and the sectional concrete valve boxes installed instead. These boxes have proven entirely satisfactory; some of them have been in service about five years.

We have removed one old valve from the 10 inch main in the Deaf and Dumb Institution yards and installed in its place a new and better valve. Also removed an old fire hydrant at the same place and replaced it with a new Matthews hydrant, with two 1-2 and one 4 inch steamer opening, thereby greatly increasing the fire protection at this institution, this work being done during the night so as to inconvenience the water consumers in the locality as little as possible.

We also removed an old fire hydrant from North Main street at Dunlap street and replaced same with a new Matthews fire hydrant.

Some intelligent thought and work should be done on some of our water mains in the very near future, more especially the valves on the 10 inch main from the reservoir to the public square and south to the old pumping station; these valves, with the exception of two or three which we have installed, have been in service from the time the water plant was established. We have worked several nights on these valves attempting to repair them, but find they are so badly worn that it would be better and more economical to cut them out and install new ones.

There should be a few additional valves installed along this line to avoid the shutting off of so much territory in case of accidents. The same should be done on East State street on the 8 inch main from the public square to Hardin avenue.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. H. COBB,
Water Superintendent.

RAILROAD NOTES

Big Gain in Coal Traffic.

One factor in the improved business on the Alton is the increased tonnage of coal. The severe weather, while not welcomed by the average householder, is a big help to the railroads, coal mines and employes, as the consumption of fuel is vastly increased. During January the Alton hauled 5,287 cars of coal. This is equivalent to 125 trains. The increase over January, 1914 was 55,000 tons, a remarkable gain. The month of February is also making a fine showing.

Wrecking Crews Busy Saturday.

A number of mishaps on the Alton Saturday kept the wrecking crews busy and delayed traffic. A switch engine jumped the tracks in the Venice yards and settled in some quick sand, giving the Roodhouse wrecker a tough job. Later two cars of train 82 derailed at Wann, in the limits of the interlocking plant, damaging the rods and wires. The Springfield derrick was summoned to Carlinville to pick up two cars of an extra north, Conductor Ingalls, which were derailed while passing over a frog. Passenger trains were delayed an hour or more, having to detour through Roodhouse.

New Demurrage Rating.

It is reported that the Alton has devised a new demurrage rate on refrigerator cars containing perishables. Shippers will be allowed two days in which to unload, a charge of $1 per day for the third, fourth and fifth day, and $3 per day thereafter, up to the ninth, when the rate is $5 per day. Previously the uniform charge of $1 per day indefinitely has been in effect. By the graduated increase shippers will be inclined to hurry unloading.

Other Notes of the Road.

Conductor Blount, who has been off duty for the past week, due to an injured leg, has recovered sufficiently to return to work.

Passenger Conductor James Golden has reported for duty on the west end runs after a brief layoff, relieving Harry Ruyle. The latter in turn takes the run of E. B. Grady, on 70 and 71. Grady is off duty for three round trips, his regular monthly vacation.

The interlocking plant tower at Big Blue, Mo., occupied by the Alton, Missouri Pacific and K. C. & S. towermen, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning.

A car of silver ore from Colorado for New Jersey was transferred from the Alton at Bloomington Sunday and turned over to the Lake Erie & Western. This is a very unusual shipment.

S. U. Rymer, of Bloomington, of the Alton's signal department, left Sunday evening for Kansas City, to look after the rebuilding of the interlocking tower at Big Blue, Mo.

Mrs. H. A. Ruyle of Roodhouse, wife of the Alton passenger conductor, was a Jacksonville shopper Monday.

Burlington Passenger Conductor A. J. Frazier was again back on the job yesterday on 47 and 48 after a few days lay-off. Jack Rawlings who was filling Frazier's place returned to Beardstown Monday.

COLORADO RATES ATTACKED.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 6.—The first hearing opened today in the crusade begun by the Colorado State Utilities Commission against the railroads operating in the state, seeking a lowering of passenger and freight rates. Today's hearing will cover the passenger charges, and the Denver and Rio Grande, Colorado and Southern, Santa Fe and Midland Terminal roads have been ordered to appear. The attack centers on the 5 cents per mile rate between Cripple Creek and Divide, the 5 cents per mile rate between Pueblo and Canon City and the 4 cent rate between Pueblo and Trinidad. The attack on freight rates will center on coal charges, which are claimed to be excessive to certain sections of the state.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY IN REAL PARIS BALL.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A costume ball and carnival, an exact reproduction of a student ball in the Parisian Latin quarter, will follow the entertainment to be given tonight for the aid of families of French artists engaged in the European war. Washington is agog with excitement, for the event promises to be the big gathering of the winter of social and political leaders in the capital. The entertainment is given by the Society of Beaux Arts Architects, assisted by the American Institute of Architects, and the Washington Society of Artists. The big ballroom at the New Willard has been turned into a real French cabaret, with a stage at one end, Madame Yvonne de Treville of the Opera Comique de Paris will sing French songs.

The costumes will bedeck social leaders and government officials as Herlequins, Columelines, Pierrots, Pletettes, with all their carnival friends, with peasants, students, artists, priests, nuns, gendarmes, Bohemians, dancers and soldiers in the present and past garb of the armies of France.

RESUME WORK ON PLANT.

Work was begun Monday noon on the new power house of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., after a stoppage of three weeks. The cold weather has made building operations impracticable and a continuation of present weather is hoped for by those in charge.

YOUNG COLORED MAN CONFESSES TO THEFT

Is Arrested by Chief Davis For Stealing Clothes From H. Johnson Shop—Lost Button Furnished Clue.

Oscar Stewart, a young colored man who has been living in Jacksonville for a number of months, was arrested Sunday by Chief of Police Davis on the charge of burglary and larceny. He was arraigned in Squire Dyer's court and failing to give bond for $500, is now in the county jail. Stewart has been loafing at intervals around the H. Johnson tailoring shop in the Dowd building on West State street. Sunday morning about 10:30 Mr. Johnson went to the shop for a moment and noticed that the transom was open and on investigation found that a suit of trousers which were ready for delivery to a customer had been stolen. He suspected Stewart and described the suspect to Chief of Police Davis. It was only a few minutes later that the chief apprehended Stewart in front of the Drexel on West State street. The latter first denied the charge, but when Chief Davis showed him a button found just outside of the tailoring shop door, which matched those remaining on Stewart's vest, the culprit confessed and said that he had hidden the clothing on a shelf in the Busy Bee lunch counter in the Cole building at the corner of Morgan and West streets. There the clothing was found and returned to Mr. Johnson in good condition. Stewart evidently tore the button from his vest as he squeezed through the transom, and Chief Davis did a little Sherlock Holmes work in this positive identification of the thief.

HEROES IN THE TRENCHES.

Paris, Feb. 2.—These men in the trenches must keep incessant vigilance against sudden attacks by the enemy. The men who serve the artillery fire day and night oftentimes at an enemy that is never seen.

Medical science will save more lives this year than war will take, no matter how terrifically murderous that war may be. Then, too, the food supply is very carefully looked after by the commissariat. The food supply of the soldiers must be wholesome. Living in the open air, the men are able to digest hard-tack with great relish, Napoleon said, "An army fights on its stomach." A man with a weak stomach is pretty sure to be a poor fighter. It is difficult—almost impossible—for anyone, man or woman, if digestion is poor, to succeed in business or socially—or to enjoy life. In Golden or Liquid Food Dr. Pierce's Food Medical Discovery helps weak stomachs to strong, healthy action—helps them to digest the food that makes the good, rich, red blood which nourishes the entire body.

This vegetable remedy, to a great extent, puts the liver into activity—cleans the machinery of the human system so that those who spend their working hours at the desk, behind the counter, or in the home are rejuvenated into vigorous health.

It has brought relief to many thousands every year for nearly fifty years. It can relieve you and doubtless restore your former health and strength. At least you owe it to yourself to give it a trial. Sold by medical dealers or send 50 cents for box of tablets—Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

You can have Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser of 1108 pages in cloth binding, fully illustrated with colored plates, for 3 dimes or 30 cents.

Read all about yourself, your system, the physiology of life, sex problems, marriage relations, anatomy, hygiene exercise, disease and its prevention, simple home cares, etc.—Adv.

RESOLUTIONS PAY TRIBUTE TO REV. AND MRS. L. H. DAVIS

Have Been Adopted By Members of Westminster Church and Societies of the Church.

After the morning service at Westminster church Sunday, Mr. Frank Elliott as chairman of a committee, appointed by the congregation to draft resolutions relative to the recent resignation of Rev. L. H. Davis, made a report.

Mr. Elliott then made a motion that the resolutions be adopted and Mr. Ensley Moore offered a second to the motion as did Mr. J. A. Ayers and then this action was taken by a rising vote of the church membership. Mr. Elliott also read resolutions which have been adopted by the Ladies Aid society and by the Guild. All of the resolutions are printed herewith.

By the Church.

We, the undersigned committee, in behalf of Westminster Presbyterian church of Jacksonville, desire to submit the following:

Rev. Leonidas H. Davis, who has served us most faithfully for more than seven years, has asked that this relationship be dissolved. We find that words, however well chosen, are feeble instruments to express our unbounded respect and love for him as a pastor, as a real man and as a true friend, and to measure our sorrow over losing such a choice spirit.

A man of education and culture, a thorough student and a gentleman of rare attainments and refinement, of singularly pure and noble character and imbued with the spirit and knowledge of God and a high ideal of the dignity of his calling, he has lived and walked among us and ministered to us for these seven years, exemplifying in a high degree the loving spirit of our Divine Master and the Gospel which he preached unto us.

It has been a rare privilege to listen to his messages, which, invariably have been well thought out, each containing practical truths, and, above all, filled with the very spirit of the Master. Nor is this strange, for the Great Teacher has been his constant companion.

Mr. Davis has never given anything, either in or out of the pulpit, but what has been his best, coming from a mind unusually fine and well trained and from a heart full of love for the Christ and for his fellow men.

He has opened the Bible and revealed to us its truths and beauties as but few have the power and insight to do. And his one great message has been "Christ and Him crucified."

And in the time of sorrow when he has come so tenderly and so sympathetically into many of our homes, even as the Master who "wept," his words have been seemingly inspired and his prayers for comfort and sustaining strength have lifted the broken hearts directly to the Great Comforter.

His going will be a distinct loss to many a heart not only in our own church, but in our sister churches and in the community, for his strong, pure, Christ-like spirit has exerted a broad, uplifting influence.

May the richest blessings from the One he so faithfully loves and serves abide with both Mr. and Mrs. Davis, and may the dear Father above keep them and guide them.

We suggest that these expressions of appreciation be adopted by the members of our church, that a copy be spread upon the records of the church and a copy be delivered to Mr. Davis.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Elliott,
Carlton W. Taylor,
C. H. Rammelkamp,
Committee.

By the Aid Society.

The Westminster Aid society learns with deep regret and sorrow of the decision of our pastor, Rev. L. H. Davis, to withdraw from his ministry to our church. We desire to express in some faint measure our appreciation of the unstinted devotion and whole-hearted service he has given us.

His ever ready sympathy, and his appreciation of our efforts to serve the church have been an encouragement in all that we have undertaken, while his counsel and example have been a constant inspiration to seek higher levels in our spiritual life.

We feel that we owe a debt of gratitude to our pastor and Mrs. Davis for their unfailing sympathy and help in all that pertains to the welfare of the church.

Wherever they may go, our best wishes will follow them, and our prayers for their happiness and success.

Serena Rayhill,
Helen W. Walton,
Clara Moore,
Committee.

By the Guild.

The members of the Guild have learned with sincere regret of the determination of Rev. L. H. Davis to give up the pastorate of Westminster church. Ever since the organization of the Guild seven years ago, Mr. Davis has manifested a deep interest in our work, and has shared with us the pleasure we have found in making the Guild one of the strongest in the state. It is fitting, in this connection, to mention that to the pastor's wife belongs the credit for having started the Guild work in our church, for it was she who first suggested it and arranged for a state organizer to visit us. Her interest in the society has never failed, and as patroness, she has given us much help and pleasure.

It is the wish of the Guild members to add this word of written appreciation of the earnest, devoted efforts that Mr. Davis, during all of his pastorate, has put forth for the upbuilding and spiritual welfare of all departments of the church. He and Mrs. Davis will be greatly missed, and we hope for them Heaven's choicest blessing through many years to come.

Ainslie Moore,
Helen W. Walton,
Louise B. Holmes,
Committee.

TRYING ILLINOIS COAL FOR MAKING GAS

Tests in Progress at Local Plant—It Successful Will Mean Big Saving.

Tests are now being made at the plant of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company for the use of Illinois coal in making gas. Engineer M. R. Taylor of Chicago is here making the tests and experiments which will continue through the week. If an Illinois coal can be found which gives satisfactory results in gas making, a great saving can be effected by the Jacksonville Railway & Light company as well as by like concerns throughout the state. Franklin county coal, which in analysis shows it to be of the highest grade in Illinois, is being used in the present experiment, and on the freight rate from the district where it is mined is eighty cents per ton.

The freight rate on gas coal used in the past from either Pennsylvania or Ohio is a little more than three times the rate from the Illinois field. Not all the saving apparent from the figures would be effected if Illinois coal could be substituted for the other fuel, for it is known that the amount of coke produced as a by-product from Illinois coal would be much less, and there would also be a less amount of tar and ammonia. All of these by-products are important in figuring the difference in cost between the two coals. Should the Franklin county coal prove satisfactory in the quality of gas and from an economic standpoint, there will be also a good deal of convenience resulting from shipments from a field so near at hand, as the arrival of cars can be regulated much more satisfactorily than from a field so far distant as either Pennsylvania or Ohio.

Scott, under orders from the Attorney General's office Sunday, not to permit the sale. Through the solicitation of Mr. Graham, who stated that he did not have enough feed for his stock, the matter was taken up again by Dr. Scott who laid the facts before the state board of live stock commissioners and Dr. C. M. Corbett, the federal veterinary was called to the premises and inspected each animal before they were put under the hammer. Cows brought from $25 to $57 and calves from $10 to $35. SALARY PETITION REFERRED TO CITY ATTORNEY

Mr. Thompson Asked to Give Written Opinion—Annual Report of Water Department Makes Splendid Showing.

When the city council met Monday morning about the first business transacted was the reading of the petition which proposes to reduce the salary of mayor and commissioners. It was charged that a number of the signatures were those of non-residents, that others had not been made in the presence of those who made affidavit as to the correctness thereof, and still other questions were raised as to the validity of the document. After a very brief discussion, it was determined to refer it to City Attorney Thompson and ask him to prepare a written opinion as to the proper course for the council to take.

The formal resolution which is made annually instructing the mayor and city clerk to issue anticipation warrants up to the amount of 75 per cent of the taxes collectible in 1916, was read and made a part of the records. The annual report of the water department as presented by J. F. Brennan, commissioner of public property, and W. H. Cobb, superintendent, was read and indicated that the year 1914 was the largest in the history of the department, the total collections being $2,957.25 in excess of 1913, which was the largest year up to that time. It was ordered on motion of Mr. Knollenberg that the report be printed in both of the daily papers, and it appears on another page of this issue. Mr. Brennan stated that the report was not absolutely complete, as it showed no credit for the water consumed in the city building or from two hydrants on the outside. One of these is used quite extensively in washing hose after the firemen return from any trip where the hose has been used.

Mr. Knollenberg announced that Mr. Newman had arranged with the Ayers National bank for the cashing of anticipation warrants without discount. Mr. Brennan reported that T. M. Tomlinson had asked him with reference to the laying of a cable for boulevard lights underneath a concrete sidewalk which is to be placed in front of the Tomlinson-McDonald-Wadsworth building on the north side of the square.

The matter was referred to Mr. Brennan with power to act, and he said that if the property owners there would put up the boulevard lamps, that the city would at once furnish them with current. He said that the cost of putting in the cable would probably be about seventy-five cents a foot. He will discuss the matter with Mr. Tomlinson and take the action which is most satisfactory to the property owners.

U. G. Woodman returned to live in Jacksonville eight years ago at the solicitation of the late Hon. James T. King, former mayor of Jacksonville, whose daughter he married some years ago. They have two daughters, one 11 and one 15 years old.
